North Carolina Building Inspectors Association 2025 Jurisdiction of the Year

This award is given to the jurisdiction within the association who have distinguished themselves through their dedication and professionalism, standing out as a role model within the state and who have strived to maintain the highest standard of excellence.

