Discussion Items

Update on requests for legislative assistance.

Town Manager Mark Biberdorf went over the updated legislative assistance list and stated that after the meeting today that the representatives from Ted Budd's & Chuck Edwards offices were receptive to helping with these items.

Discussion Followed:

Town Manager Report

Town Manager commented on the meeting with the representatives from Ted Bud's and Chuck Edwards offices today and that the projects have been submitted to them that we would like help with.

Town Manager Mark Biberdorf thanked council for the recent budget meeting, and he said that he will update the budget once he gets a final set of values from the county. He said that he would prepare the budget message and the public hearing would be advertised on May 29th for the budget to be adopted at the June 10th regular meeting.

There is nothing new with Crown Castle and the small cell wireless facilities. They have provided a map showing 3 or 4 that would be located on Underwood Road and on Airport Road. They still have not decided as yet where to put the one on Fanning Bridge Road.
