WHEREAS, the veterans of our armed services deserve the highest degree of respect for their patriotic acts; and

WHEREAS, all the men and women in our armed services give the ultimate sacrifice to our country by serving here and abroad in these entities; and

WHEREAS, often these great men and women are not recognized for their sacrifice, and today we hope to honor them through a community-wide celebration; and

WHEREAS, not only should these veterans be honored and respected for their great sacrifice to our country, but also revered for the lives they lived selflessly in service of others; and

WHEREAS, we thank all those who care for our wounded warriors through the provision of health and human services and all those who befriend them as a good neighbor; and

WHEREAS, we urge all citizens to fly our flag, to recognize the importance of our veterans, the service of the men and women in the armed services of our country serving here and abroad, and the significance of the sacrifice that these remarkable individuals have provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Mayor and City Council for the City of Lincolnton, do hereby proclaim November 11th, 2025, as "Veterans Day" in Lincolnton, North Carolina and commend its observance to all citizens.
