What do you feel are your qualifications for serving on the board requested?

I have worked with and presented to similar boards across multiple jurisdictions as a planner. I am currently a Regional Planner with Land of Sky Regional Council. I am a Certified Zoning Official (CZO), Certified Floodplain Manager (CFM), and received my Master in Public Administration (MPA) in 2017. I have been serving the public since then. I would be honored to use my planning expertise to ensure the area I call "home" develops in compliance with current regulations and community ideals.

What do you feel are your qualifications for serving on the board requested?

I have been working in architecture, planning, and development for the past 15 years, managing projects from early design through, approvals, permits and construction. I regularly work with individual residential clients, larger developers, planning staff, engineers, and town boards, and understand how to read code, apply it fairly, and make practical decisions.

I own a home in the "Heart of Fletcher" where my family and I live full time.I'm collaborative, I communicate well with people who may have different views, and I want to help the Town plan for the future in a positive and thoughtful way
