A PROCLAMATION
PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

In honor of the millions of public employees at the federal, state, county and city levels

WHEREAS, since 1985, the first week of May has been set aside as Public Service Recognition Week, a time to thank dedicated public servants from federal, state and local governments across the country; and

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants. These unsung heroes do the work that keep, not only our nation, but our city working; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants, on the local level, include administrative assistants and customer service/utility billing personnel…… finance and IT…sanitation and street, planning & zoning and public utility…..human resources and community relations…… police and fire.....and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the citizens of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Hatley, Mayor of the City of Lincolnton, do hereby announce and proclaim to all citizens and set seal hereto, that May 5th – 11th, 2024, is Public Service Recognition Week. All citizens are encouraged to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and city.
