Commissioner Stroud,

All of our June numbers were quite good.

Typically, July and August are good months as well.

Compared with last year's totals, we were better in almost all categories.

Door count was up slightly to 78,683, as was overall circulation to 247,529.

Our programmers did an exceptional job this year with a total of 1,334 programs and 36,061 in attendance.

That's up from 1,219 programs and 31,103 in attendance from last year, which was also an exceptional year.

Ebook usage continues to be strong.

We have 6,420 registered ebook users.

Ebook circulation for FY 25/26 was 67,105.

Last year it was 64,131.

Our customer satisfaction for the year was 94.08, which exceeds the goal of 90 or greater.

We are gathering data for our annual statistical survey with the Library of North Carolina (formerly the State Library of North Carolina).

We are also finalizing our operational capacity for FY 26/27.

Our major project for the coming year will be the preparation and development of the library's next five-year plan, as required by the Library of North Carolina.

Thanks! -- jw
