City of Asheville, Board of Commissioners

March 2021

I am asking for your support to allow me to serve on the Civic Center Commission. I am very qualified to be a member of this commission. I have server six years on the Civic Center Commission. As a group that has met the challenges of refurbishing the arena. The commissioners are turning their attention towards the Thomas Wolfe Auditorium. I feel up to the challenges that this represents for City of Asheville, Buncombe County, for the staff, and most of all for our total community.

The Civic Center commissioners will be bringing the Thomas Wolfe Auditorium into the future.

By renovated the Auditorium we can achieve sustainability. We will be able to offer an attractive venue for entertainment, sports, education and business.

The Center is a multifunction property. I am familiar with the opportunity that the center would represent to a potential user.

The focus for myself as a commissioner will be on the realistic return of our community's investment.

I am asking your support for my nomination to server on the Civic Center Commission.
Thank you very much.

Please see resume and cover letter submitted to email address listed below for additional information. I am a new resident of Asheville, moving to the area with my husband as we pursue an active retirement in Western NC. We just recently purchased a condo downtown and have been both startled and excited by the vibrant and diverse cultural offerings in Asheville. Everywhere we have lived since I retired, I have sought to make a contribution to the arts and education in that locale. I seek the same in Asheville through a position on the Civic Center Commission. Most recently, I have served on the Tryon Fine Arts Center (TFAC) Board in Tryon, NC. TFAC is a 400 seat non-profit Performing Arts Center with programming that ranges from nationally touring music acts and shows, to local small town performers. In addition, TFAC offers extensive arts education programming to both children and adults. My contributions there have focused on expanding the adult arts education offerings, growing our Appalachian music education program and successfully navigating the COVID 19 shut down and reopening. On this board, I am known primarily for my energy and creative ideas. As a relative newcomer to the area, I am not limited to what has been done before and can offer novel ways of accomplishing our goals. My motivation to serve in this capacity is a deep seated desire to open minds to what is possible in life through art. Art, be it music, dance, or visual, has the power to bring diverse people together and to expand our acceptance of all that we see as different from ourselves. To me, there is no greater joy experienced that sharing art with others. I look forward to participating fully in Asheville's considerable cultural offerings and am hopeful that I can share my expertise through my contribution on the the Civic Center Commission.

Greetings!

I will get straight to the point. My expertise lies in technology and management. At my Biltmore job, I lead a team that serves millions of customers with fast loading, beautiful, and transactional web applications. I will apply this expertise to help solve civic center issues using sustainable and maintainable technology solutions.

The civic center is close to my heart as I have attended many events at the center. I have always felt like it is a place that I wanted to help improve. Now, the opportunity to serve is here. I humbly ask to be selected for this position.

Thank you for your consideration.
