Asheville JCC

Reasoning for a Hilde's House Renovation

History

Quality

- Serving children aged 6 weeks through Pre-K
- Licensed 5-star program by the NC Department of Health and Human Services
- Inclusive program that enrolls people of all faith traditions, accepts childcare waivers, and offers scholarships
- Sheva Program through the JCC Assoc. of North America, focused on the following core values:
  - Children as Constructivist Learners
  - Early Childhood Directors as Visionaries
  - Early Childhood Educators as Professionals
  - Families as Engaged Partners
  - Environments as Inspiration for Inquiry
  - Sh'mirat HaGuf (taking care of our bodies)
  - Israel as the Story of the Jewish People

Reputation

Shalom Children's Center has been voted by the community as the #1 "Child Care or Day Care Service" in the Mountain Xpress "Best of" poll annually since the category was offered.

Building Community

Why Renovate Hilde's House?

- Maintain home/neighborhood environment
- Facilitate implementation of licensing requirements
- Create uninterrupted sight-lines for supervision
- Improve ADA accessibility
- Improve security
- Reduce impact of pick-up/drop-off traffic on the community, increasing safety of participants
